- Interim Chief Shephard and Captain Fretwell has interviewed a good candidate for the open Engine Boss position in the Wildland Division. The Wildland Critical 80 training will begin on May 7th.
- No Deployment are going on at this time but there is a little mitigation work occurring.
- The Type 3 engines are closer to being ready for auction. Cleaning up documents and equipment has been done. The man camp will also be available for the auction. The intent is to have all items ready to go when the inspectors show up so they only must come once.

Director's Highs & Lows

- President Park said the High for the Directors-
- The response from the District personnel during this time of Chief vacancy has been extraordinary.
- Thank you to Interim Chief Shephard for his resiliency and patience while this process has played out. It has been commendable.
- Thank you to the Board for the additional hours of interviews and collaboration in the process to fill the Chief position.
- Vice President McKinley added the Captains and the Firefighters had stepped up and taken on responsibilities of the District and this recruitment process. Set us up for success.
